

6516208192.txt

I would like to say that satellite radio is by far the best thing for the country because you can get so many channels and never lose them!! The weather channels a God sent because you can learn about a town way before you get there. You can prepare for the condition's or take another route. It is GREAT!!!